

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SALE AND SUPPLY

1. Definitions

"Buyer" means any person, firm or company placing an order with the Seller.

"Conditions" means these terms and conditions of sale and supply.

"Contract" means any contract between the Seller and the Buyer for the sale of Goods, or supply of Services to the Buyer.

"Export Contract" means any Contract for the supply of Goods which is an international supply contract as defined in Section 26 of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977.

"Goods" means any goods supplied by the Seller to the Buyer.

"Incoterms" means the latest edition of the trade terms of the International Chamber of Commerce.

"Seller" means Liquasil Limited of Unit 3 Radway Industrial Estate, Radway Road, Solihull, West Midlands B90 4NR.

"Services" means any service performed by the Seller for the Buyer.

In these Conditions the masculine will include the feminine and neuter and vice versa, and the singular shall include the plural.

Headings are for convenience only and shall not form part of these Conditions.

2. Existence of Contract

2.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Buyer and the Seller, these Conditions shall apply to all Contracts to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions including any terms and conditions which the Buyer may purport to apply under any Buyer specification, purchase order or similar document.

2.2 These Conditions shall also apply to any future oral or written Contract save to the extent that the subject matter herein is in conflict with any written agreement signed by the Seller and governing the Contract, whereon the provisions of such written agreement shall prevail.

2.3 No verbal representation or verbal statement by an employee or agent of the Seller shall form part of the Contract nor shall any such verbal representation or statement be treated as constituting a representation on the part of the Seller or a term of the Contract unless such representation or statement shall be confirmed in writing.

3. Amendments and Cancellation

3.1 The terms of the Contract shall not be varied unless the Seller expressly makes or accepts any variation in writing.

3.2 The Contract may only be cancelled by the Buyer with the Seller's prior written consent and upon cancellation the Seller shall be entitled to invoice the Buyer for all work carried out to date by the Seller under or pursuant to the Contract including any costs and expenses incidental to that work.

4. Quantities

4.1 Any quantities or spread rates stated by the Seller are not binding on the Seller. They are commercial estimates only, which the Seller has calculated based on laboratory conditions. Spread rates will vary according to substrate type and are therefore not guaranteed.

4.2 The Buyer shall be solely responsible for all site measurements and ensuring that sufficient materials are ordered for each project, allowing for wastage and surface conditions.

5. Samples, Telephone Orders and Advice

5.1 If the Contract is a sale by sample contract, the Goods will correspond with the sample as far as reasonably possible given the nature of the Goods.

5.2 The Seller is prepared to receive the Buyer's order by telephone but will be under no liability whatsoever for any error or omission claimed by the Buyer to have arisen in relation to a telephone order and the Contract shall be treated as relating to the Goods actually supplied.

6. Orders & Returns

6.1 Orders are accepted by the Buyer upon delivery of the Goods or the supply of the Services the subject of the order unless non-acceptance is communicated at that time.

6.2 The Seller does not accept part order, returned goods for restocking. It is the Buyer's responsibility to determine quantities of materials required for each project.

6.3 Special colour orders are accepted on the basis that the specified colour shall be made to a known standard colour chart (RAL or BS). Such colours shall be made to be as close as possible to the original standard.

6.4 Once a non-standard colour enters production, it may not be cancelled and must be paid for in full.

7. Delivery

7.1 Delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services shall be made at the agreed place.

7.2 Where delivery is made at a place other than the Seller's premises, the Buyer will provide, without causing any material delay to the Seller or its agent, safe and proper means of access to and egress from such place and suitable facilities for the unloading of the Goods (including where reasonably needed, the attendance of the Buyer's representative at such delivery). If the same are not provided, the Seller shall be entitled to withhold delivery and/or charge the Buyer for any additional costs and time incurred or spent by the Seller or its agent. In cases where delivery is refused and goods are subsequently returned to the Seller, the Customer shall be liable for the delivery cost and any further re-delivery cost.

7.3 All dates for delivery are estimates only and time for delivery is not of the essence of the Contract. The Seller may make delivery in advance of the delivery date upon giving reasonable notice to the Buyer.

7.4 The Seller shall not be liable in any way for any direct or indirect loss, damage or expense (including loss of profits and liability to third parties) suffered or incurred by the Buyer as a consequence of any delay in delivery.

7.5 The Seller may deliver in instalments if it wishes and each delivery shall constitute a separate Contract. Failure by the Seller to deliver one or more of such instalments or any claim by the Buyer in respect of any one or more instalments shall not entitle the Buyer to any remedies by adjustment of or in relation to any other relevant Contract.

7.6 The Buyer must inspect all goods within 3 working days from delivery. If any Goods are damaged, missing or lost, the Buyer must submit a detailed written claim to the Seller within 7 working days of delivery of the Goods. If the Buyer fails to submit a claim within 7 working days of delivery of the Goods, the Seller shall be released from any liability in respect of damage or loss in transit or short delivery. For the avoidance of doubt, damage to packaging (including tins) shall not constitute damage to goods unless the damaged packaging results in total or partial loss of the contents.

7.7 The Buyer shall sign all appropriate paperwork required by the Seller before accepting the Goods and must ensure that he is in possession of and fully cognizant with the appropriate Health and Safety Data Sheet ("Data Sheet") and comply with all the requirements specified therein. The Buyer should immediately contact the Seller if it is not in possession of any such Data Sheet. The Buyer further undertakes, where appropriate, to draw the attention of its customers, employees and agents to the content of the relevant Data Sheet. All Data Sheets are in accordance with English law and can be downloaded from <https://liquasil.com/downloads>

7.8 The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller against any loss or expenditure incurred by the Seller, and against any liability which the Seller may be under to any third party as a result directly or indirectly of any breach by the Buyer of its obligations under this Condition 7.

8. Risk

8.1 In respect of any Contract other than an Export Contract, the risk of damage to or loss of the Goods shall pass to the Buyer upon delivery, or if the Buyer wrongfully fails to take delivery, the time when the Seller tenders delivery of the Goods. Delivery shall be taken as occurring:-

8.1.1 where the Goods are delivered by the Seller, when the Goods are offloaded from the Seller's or its agent's vehicle;

8.1.2 where the Goods are collected by the Buyer, when the Goods are loaded onto the vehicle used by the Buyer or its agent.

8.2 In respect of any Export Contract, the risk of damage to or loss of the Goods shall pass to the Buyer in accordance with the Incoterm agreed between the parties.

9. Price

9.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the price payable for the Goods shall be as stated in the Seller's price list current at the date of despatch from the Seller's premises and shall be payable in sterling.

Such price shall be exclusive of any storage, carriage, insurance, customs duties and all other taxes, duties and expenses in respect of the Goods all of which shall be added to the price for the Buyer's account.

9.2 The Seller has the right from time to time to increase quoted prices in order that it may maintain its profit margin on the same.

10. Payment

10.1 Unless agreed otherwise, the Seller's terms of settlement are cash on delivery or pro-forma and any relaxation of these terms granted by the Seller may be withdrawn at any time without notice. The Buyer will reimburse to the Seller all costs and expenses (including legal costs) incurred in the collection of any overdue amount. For the purposes of this Condition 10.1 only, time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.

10.2 The Buyer shall not be entitled to set off any sum claimed against payments due to the Seller under any Contract.

10.3 Where appropriate the Seller will issue credit notes to the Buyer, which shall be off set only against such invoices as the Seller specifies. Cash refunds against credit notes will be given at the Seller's sole discretion.

11. Retention of Title

11.1 Notwithstanding the delivery of and the passing of risk in the Goods to the Buyer, title in the Goods shall not pass to the Buyer until

(a) the Buyer shall have paid the Seller in full therefore pursuant to Condition 10.1 and (b) no other sums are then outstanding from the Buyer to the Seller on any account whatever whether or not such sums have become due for payment.

11.2 Until such time as title in the Goods passes to the Buyer, the Buyer shall hold such Goods as the Seller's fiduciary agent and bailee, and shall keep such Goods properly stored, protected and insured.

11.3 Until such time as title in the Goods passes to the Buyer, the Seller shall be entitled at any time to require the Buyer to deliver up such Goods to the Seller and if the Buyer fails to do so forthwith, to enter upon any premises of the Buyer or any third party where such Goods are stored and mark, identify and repossess such Goods.

11.4 In the event that the Seller exercises any of its rights under Condition 11.3, any right of the Buyer to sell, dispose of, deal or in any way use Goods in which title has not passed to the Buyer shall cease forthwith. This Condition 11.4 is without prejudice to any other rights and remedies available to the Seller.

11.5 The Buyer shall not be entitled to pledge or in any way charge by way of security for any indebtedness any of the Goods, which remain the property of the Seller.

11.6 The Seller shall not pass or issue any warranty or guarantee, until payment for goods supplied has been received in full from the Buyer.

12. Effect of Default by the Buyer

12.1 If the Buyer does not pay the Seller in full when due, compounds with its creditors, executes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, has a bankruptcy order made against him or being a company, an order is made for the appointment of an administrator to manage the affairs, business and property of the Buyer or documents are filed with a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of an administrator of the Buyer or notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given by the other party or its directors or by a qualifying floating charge holder (as defined in paragraph 14 of Schedule B1 to the Insolvency Act 1986) or a receiver or liquidator appointed over all or part of its assets or takes or suffers any similar action in consequence of debt or becomes insolvent, all sums outstanding in respect of Goods and Services shall become payable immediately. The Seller may at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights and remedies it may have:

12.1.1 suspend all future deliveries of Goods or performance of Services to the Buyer and/or terminate the Contract without liability upon its part; and

12.1.2 require payment of interest on all amounts due at a daily rate equivalent to 5% per annum above the base rate of Barclays Plc from time to time in force on the balance outstanding until payment is made in full, such interest to accrue after as well as before any judgement; and 12.1.3 exercise any of its rights pursuant to Condition 11. Unless the Seller expressly elects otherwise, any Contract between it and the Buyer shall remain in existence notwithstanding any exercise by the Seller of its rights under this clause.

12.3.4 Any product or third party insurance warranty issued by the Seller in respect of goods supplied shall become null and void.

13. Intellectual Property

13.1 Where the Seller has manufactured Goods in anticipation of the Buyer's order in expectation of a continued course of dealing, the Buyer licenses the Seller, both before and after termination of any Contract, to dispose of such Goods (but not to manufacture more) notwithstanding that they include the Buyer's trademarks, copyright and get-up.

13.2 No warranty or representation is given by the Seller that the Goods do not infringe any copyright, patents, trademarks, registered designs or other industrial property rights of third parties.

13.3 The supply of Goods by the Seller shall not confer any right upon the Buyer to use any of the Seller's trade marks (except in the re-sale of goods in the packaging supplied by the Seller), or any of the Seller's copyright, patents, trademarks or design rights, and at all times such copyright, patents, trademarks and design rights shall remain the absolute property of the Seller.

13.4 The Buyer shall not alter any packaging comprising the Goods and shall not obliterate or obscure any warnings or advice appearing on such packaging concerning the use, storage or disposal of the Goods.

14. Warranties and Liabilities

14.1 By their nature the type of Goods supplied by the Seller may vary from precise specification depending on the raw materials and formulation used. The Seller therefore does not warrant precise compliance with technical or data sheets and labels describing them. The Seller warrants that the Goods will be within the tolerances specified by the Seller.

14.2 The Seller reserves the right to use alternative raw materials or formulations in manufacturing the Goods without notice to the Buyer provided that the Goods shall not be rendered unfit for the purposes communicated by the Buyer to the Seller. Minor changes in the colour, appearance or performance in the Goods as a result shall not be actionable by the Buyer.

14.3 Any Goods supplied by the Seller as "trial products" at the request of the Buyer are provided for test purposes only and the Buyer shall be solely responsible for any loss or damage arising from or related to them.

14.4 Subject to the provisions of Condition 14.5, the Seller's liability to the Buyer whether for any breach of the Contract or any duty owed to the Buyer or otherwise shall be limited, as the Seller may elect, to making good any shortage, replacing the Goods or refunding all, or part of, the Contract price against return of the Goods. The Seller shall be under no liability for any consequential or indirect loss suffered, or liability to third parties incurred, by the Buyer.

14.5 Liability for death or personal injury resulting from the negligence of the Seller shall not be limited within the United Kingdom. In the case of Export Contracts only, the Seller shall not be liable for death or personal injury resulting from the negligence of the Seller.

14.6 Subject as expressly provided in these Conditions, all warranties, conditions or other terms implied by statute or common law are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14.7 Nothing in this Condition 14 shall have the effect of excluding or limiting any liability of the Seller under the Consumer Protection Act 1987 or similar consumer protection legislation to a person who has suffered damage as a result of a defective product.

14.8 The Seller shall not be liable to the Buyer nor be deemed to be in breach of contract by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of the Seller's obligations in relation to the Contract if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond the Seller's reasonable control including difficulties in obtaining raw materials, labour, fuel, parts or machinery, power failure or break down of machinery. Any such delay or failure on the part of the Seller shall not affect the obligation of the Buyer to pay for the Goods already delivered.

15. Regulations and Labelling

15.1 In the case of an Export Contract, the Buyer shall be responsible for compliance with all relevant laws and regulations and for obtaining and maintaining at its expense any necessary import or export licences, customs clearance, exchange control consent or other authorisations and permits whatsoever and the Buyer shall ensure that the Goods are at all times labelled in such a way as to ensure the safety which a person is entitled to expect from the Goods.

15.2 The Seller accepts no responsibility for the content or design of the Buyer's labels, get-up or literature where these are provided other than by the Seller.

16. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is excluded and shall not apply to any Contract.

17. Data Protection Act 1998

17.1 The Seller endeavours to provide all customers with a copy of the Seller's Notification Statement ("Statement") which sets out the purposes, which the Seller may use personal information for. A copy of the Statement is available from Liquasil Ltd., Unit 3 Radway Industrial Estate, Radway Road, Solihull, West Midlands, United Kingdom, B90 4NR.

17.2 The Buyer agrees to the disclosure to any credit reference agency, or credit or fraud monitoring scheme, of the details of the Buyer's performance of its obligations to the Seller under any Contract.

18. Waiver

The failure of the Seller to insist upon the strict performance of any of the terms and conditions of the Contract shall not be construed as a waiver of any such term or condition and shall in no way affect the Seller's right to enforce such provision at a later date.

19. Severability

If any wording in any provision of the Contract is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable it shall, to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, unenforceability or unreasonableness, be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of the Contract and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect.

20. Governing Law

The construction, validity and performance of the Contract is governed by English law and by entering into the Contract the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

Addendum B -Payment Options

TRADE CREDIT ACCOUNT

Credit accounts of up to £100,000 are available to companies of good financial standing.

We typically provide 30 day terms, but this can be extended at our credit insurer's discretion.

Send us your company details, VAT and company registration number and we'll make an application on your behalf.

CREDIT / DEBIT CARD

If we are unable to provide a credit facility for any reason, we accept direct bank transfer as well as credit and debit card payments.

Our invoices are all sent electronically and if you wish to pay by card, will include a Pay now Button or email link. Alternatively, we may be able to accept card payment over the telephone.

When paying by card, your transaction will be completed online using our payment processor's secure web page.

INSTALMENTS

This flexible buy now, pay later facility allows payment to be made in three monthly instalments with a small interest charge payable each month on the outstanding balance.

We'll send a payment link with your invoice if you choose this option. All you need to do is enter the invoice amount, add your company details and you're good to go.
